ABOUT BORED TEACHERS

Over 8 years ago, Bored Teachers was born from the sweat, tears, and a love-hate relationship with the teacher profession. Founders James and Marilou Tarantino were classroom teachers and avid travelers where they met and shared stories with teacher from all over the world who went through the same struggles and frustrations. Through these shared sentiments, they began a community on social media sharing--through humorous skits, memes, and articles--the very real experiences, true stories, and honest feelings about just how complex and undervalued teachers everywhere are. The feelings were so relatable that the engagement exploded from like-minded educators and the Bored Teachers creative team expanded into a production powerhouse with more and more hilarious writers, content creators, and comedians garnishing tens of millions of views on every skit, story, and podcast clip posted to the Bored Teachers channels.
