Daigle has been on the road since September, sharing many of her #1s live – including the groundbreaking smash “You Say” and recent single “Thank God I Do” – alongside debut renditions of tracks off her complete self-titled album, Lauren Daigle (listen HERE via Atlantic Records/Centricity Music).

Just last week, Daigle's work was honored with her announcement as a 2023 Billboard Music Awards Finalist in three categories: Top Christian Artist, Top Christian Album (Lauren Daigle), and Top Christian Song ("Thank God I Do").

Her current singles – the vibrant tracks "Turbulent Skies" and "These Are The Days" – are quickly rising at Hot AC Radio and impacting 75 stations at Christian Radio, respectively. Daigle will make the live TV debut of "Turbulent Skies" on Jimmy Kimmel Live! next Thursday, November 9.

Fans can watch the lyric video for "Turbulent Skies" HERE and the one-shot, official music video for "These Are The Days" HERE.

Daigle will continue the 2023 leg of The Kaleidoscope Tour throughout November and December, with her highly-anticipated Los Angeles date set for next Friday, November 10 at Crypto.com Arena.

On December 18 and 19, she'll take her beloved The Behold Christmas Tour to New York City's Beacon Theatre. These special performances will feature some of Daigle's seasonal favorites from her best-selling Christmas album, Behold: A Christmas Collection. A portion of ticket sales will be donated to The Price Fund, Daigle's foundation which was designed to establish care for children, the elderly, and those in need around the world through communal initiatives and outreach. City National Bank will match Daigle's donation to The Price Fund up to $10,000.

Born in Lake Charles, Louisiana, Daigle is a two-time Grammy®, seven-time Billboard Music, four-time American Music, and twelve-time GMA Dove Music Award winner. She's garnered over a billion streams and wowed crowds for years with sold-out US and international tours. In 2023, Daigle continues to cement her status as a modern vocal powerhouse with a huge global fanbase.

Since the release of her GRAMMY® Award-winning, multi-platinum-certified 2018 album Look Up Child, which included the 6x platinum-certified hit "You Say," Daigle has been a mainstay on the Billboard charts... and 2023 hasn't changed a thing. Her recent Mike Elizondo-produced, 23-song, self-titled album's debut single, "Thank God I Do," gave Daigle her 6th Billboard No. 1. In fact, the song sat atop the chart for 20+ weeks, making Daigle the only artist to have ever had a song top the charts for more than 20 weeks – twice. It's these accomplishments that seem to have consistently followed an artist whose musical thirst has yet to be quenched.

When Look Up Child debuted at No. 3 on the Top 200 Albums chart, Daigle became the first female artist in history to simultaneously hit the Top 10 on both Billboard's Pop and Christian Album charts. She went on to break another record when the LP reached 100 weeks at No. 1 on the Top Christian Albums chart, which is the greatest number of weeks that any artist has spent at the top of any individual album chart. Similarly, "You Say" is the longest-running No. 1 to appear on any weekly Billboard chart.

Off stage, Daigle remains committed to investing her time to promote music education, work with at-risk youth, and provide care for children, the elderly, and those in need through The Price Fund, an organization she founded in 2018. To date, she has distributed over $2.5 million to 42 nonprofits around the world.
